

TURNER PUTS TURK'S SHOULDERS TO MAT

American Wins From Achmed With a Grip on His Sore Toe.

BOTH WRESTLERS GAME

Took Washington Boy an Hour for First Fall, but He Is Strong for Third.

Joseph Turner, of Washington, who claims title as the champion middle weight wrestler of America, last night won the wrestling bout in the City Auditorium from Carre Achmed, a Turkish wrestler, who holds the title in several foreign countries. The match was the cleanest, fastest and best exhibition of its kind ever seen in Richmond, and the gameness of the Turk, who lost chiefly on account of a sore toe, attracted the attention of the big crowd.

It took Turner an hour and three minutes to win the first fall, which was accomplished by a full leg nelson on the head and a toe hold. Although apparently suffering greatly from his injured foot, Achmed fought bravely to prevent his shoulders being put to the mat, and said afterwards in his dressing room that he was suffering such pain that he could not last longer. The first round was pulled off in the classic kind of style, and frequently brought the many spectators to their feet. The meet was marked by much enthusiasm on the part of a good-natured crowd, and good feeling between the men engaged in a tug-of-war on the raised platform.

Achmed won the second fall in ten minutes and ten seconds with a leg scissors on the body. Both wrestlers worked furiously to win the second fall, but Achmed's powerful shoulders and arms were too much for the young American, and by degrees the Washingtonian was pressed to the mat. Cheers greeted the result, as the Turk had many friends after his remarkable display of cleverness in the first hour of the grueling contest.

Turner came back strong for the last round, and with a full leg nelson on the body and a toe hold on the Turk's sore digit, won the match in eighteen minutes and thirty seconds. Achmed remained on the mat a few seconds, after it was all over, but was no sooner or his feet than he staggered over to Turner's corner, and grasping his right hand, congratulated him on the result. Achmed stripped in his dressing room, after the bout, and displayed a toe that has given him much trouble since he entered the wrestling arena in America. The crowd was impressed with the fairness of both wrestlers, and there was nothing to indicate that the bout was not on the square. Several preliminaries between members of the First Virginia Regiment, under the auspices of which the meet was held, preceded the main bout. The most interesting of these was won by Heit from Davis. Dixon Polley won another of the bouts. The sport lasted until 11:30 o'clock.

COLTS LOSE GAME IN FIRST INNING

Brooklyn Outplayed Afterwards, and Play Is Fast and Snappy.

ARCHER IS BATTED FREELY

Peterson and Waymack Do Well Against Nationals, Allowing Very Few Hits.

Except in the first inning, when the Trolley Dodgers had no difficulty in connecting with Pitcher Archer, the game at Broad Street Park yesterday was prettily played, and the National Leaguers found great difficulty in connecting with Peterson and Waymack, both of whom did good work. The Colts landed for six hits, all singles except Manager Lawlor's two-sacker, a rap into left field in the final round, which sent Titman home from first base.

Burch led off in the first inning for Brooklyn with a two-base hit, and Wheat, the second man up, walked. Landgraff let Hunter's grounder get through him, filling the bases. Myers drew out to lawlor, and Burch scored before the manager could get it back to the infield. Daubert singled, scoring Wheat and Hunter, and McMillan's safe hit put Daubert on third. McMillan's sacrifice fly scored the fourth run. Archer was succeeded in the second inning by Peterson.

In the fifth inning Brown got a base on balls and immediately stole second. He went to third on Irvine's out, McElven to Daubert, and scored on Peterson's single. In the fourth inning Brooklyn landed on Peterson for a two-bagger and a three-sacker, which, with his error, scored two tallies. Except in this round Peterson held the visitors to one hit, a two-bagger by McIntyre. Myers's single was the best the Nationals could do with Waymack's delivery in the two closing innings.

Gilligan was in Baker's place at shortstop, the clever young regular being out of the game with a bad hand. The tryout for first base showed up fairly well, considering he was not in his regular position, and his only blunder at first base in the second inning. Landgraff ran off second in the third inning when one man was out on a fly to short left field, giving the visitors a chance to complete an easy double play.

Brown's one-hand catch of a ball off Burch's bat in the fourth was a fielding feat. McMillan, at shortstop, was the fastest man who has been seen in this position in any of the practice games, but he failed to land for a safe hit, which is not saying much for his ability with the stick. Titman was worked in right field by the Brooklyn substitutes, who used the space in right field for practice until two balls had been batted away over the fence, but this waste attracted the attention of the manager, and they were called to the bench.

ARTHUR LEE STRAS, First Inman.

The prospects for the Washington and Lee team in baseball are brighter this year than they have ever been. Stras is an excellent field general, and is one of the most popular captains who has ever been in charge of a nine at the university. The team has a good schedule, but expects to make a good record for itself.

CAROLINA DEFEATS BINGHAM SCHOOL

Two Pitchers Get Their First Try-Outs—Score Is 5 to 2.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Chapel Hill, N. C., April 4.—Carolina defeated Bingham School, of Asheville, this afternoon, by the score of 5 to 2. The first try-outs in the box, in the sixth, with Hunter on third, Stewart relieved Sloan, and struck out three men in rapid succession. Cowper then took the slab in the seventh, and yielded not a single hit.

Backed by diving forward, made a remarkable catch in his outstretch hands of a would-be hit over short. The other features were the hitting of Hart, of Bingham, and Duncan and Fleet Williams, and the playing of New York City.

The Bingham team is composed of fast and promising material, but at no time this afternoon called Carolina's reserve strength into play.

STARTS FOR DRILL GROUNDS.

One-Half of Atlantic Battleship Fleet Leaves Hampton Roads.

Norfolk, April 4.—One half of the Atlantic battleship fleet weighed anchor here to-day, and proceeded seaward in thick weather, en route to the Southern drill grounds off the Virginia coast, but up to late to-day the United States weather observer at Cape Henry had been unable to observe the passing of vessels of any kind in and out of the capes, and it is believed that the battleships venturing out of the roadstead have dropped anchor in Lynnhaven Roads, under the lee of Cape Henry, there to await clearing weather. Conditions were quite dangerous for all shipping attempting to pass in and out of lower Chesapeake Bay.

DEFEATS LAFAYETTE IN ERRORLESS GAME

Virginia Gets Well Earned Victory Over Easton Team—Culbertson Pitches Fine Ball and He Is Given Splendid Support.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Charlottesville, Va., April 4.—The worm turned to-day, Virginia securing a well-earned victory over Lafayette by a score of 4 to 0. Culbertson, who made such a splendid showing against Pennsylvania last week, was in the box for Virginia, and held the lads from Easton to two hits. He was given superb support, not the semblance of an error being made behind him, and this, too, despite the muddy diamond, pitched put up a star game. He had several pickups in deep short, and in every instance got the throw to first ahead of the runner. Italian gave his best exhibition of the season at backstop. Lile, Douglas and Hitch also fielded sharply. Virginia scored in the initial inning. Lile was safe on Norris's error, and tallied on Douglas's two-bagger. No more runs crossed the plate until the eighth. After Pickford had walked Lile hit out a two-bagger, and both counted on Fitchett's sizzling liner, which proved too hot for Long to handle. Fitchett stole second, went to third on a fielder's choice, and scored on a wild pitch.

The fielding feature of the game was Russell's backward running catch or Blakeney's pop fly in the sixth. The plucky shortstop collided with Kasprah, but caught the ball a second time, after it had bounded from his glove.

Culbertson made a beautiful stop of Demott's terrific liner in the fourth. With the exception of Norris, the Lafayette players fielded like veterans. Demott, who held North Carolina to one hit Friday, will probably oppose Witmer to-morrow.
